The U.S. Embassy is seeking an individual for the position of Administrative Assistant in the Political Section (POL), Refugee Program.

BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION

The Administrative Assistant supports the Refugee Program by assisting in managing the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program and State Department assistance programs for refugees and displaced persons from the Colombian situation. The Administrative Assistant will be directly supervised by the Regional Refugee Coordinator and under the broader guidance of the Embassy Political Counselor.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED

NOTE: All applicants must address each selection criterion detailed below with specific and comprehensive information supporting each item in their application or in a cover letter.

(All applicants must meet all the requirements listed below in order to be considered for subject position)

- a. Education: Two years of university/college education are required.
- b. Prior Work Experience: One year of administrative experience working with the US Government, foreign governments, Non Government Organizations (NGOs), or international organizations in the area of refugees, development or humanitarian assistance required.
- c. Language Proficiency: English Level III (good working knowledge) is required and Spanish level IV (fluent) is required.
- d. Knowledge: Must be familiar with human rights, development, humanitarian assistance or refugee/ displacement programs.
- e. Skills and abilities:
  - Good computer skills in Microsoft word and excel are required; must be able to work with and understand how to use spreadsheets, budgets and statistics in an Excel environment.
  - Ability to travel within Colombia and in the region is required.

*LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT:

Primary Language: In order to meet the language requirement, all applicants MUST indicate in their applications or in a cover letter their primary or native language. A language test will not be conducted in the applicant's native language unless requested by the selecting office.

Secondary Language(s): When two or more language requirements are stated in the Vacancy Announcement, language tests are required for those languages that the applicant does not identify as the primary, first-spoken, or native language. If an applicant claims fluency in multiple languages, the applicant must identify ONE and only ONE language as primary, first-spoken or native. ALL applicants will be tested in any other language listed in the Vacancy Announcement that is not listed in the application as a primary language.

LANGUAGE TESTING PROCEDURES:

Most of the positions at the Embassy require specific levels of both Spanish and or English. After the preliminary screening of the applications, those who meet all of the requirements will then be scheduled for the required language examinations if needed. English language examinations are given at First Class English at a cost of 40,000 (Colombian pesos), the applicant is responsible for all costs incurred for this test. Spanish Examinations are presently given at the Embassy at no cost. You will be contacted and given the procedures for each examination.

SELECTION PROCESS

When equally qualified, US Citizen Eligible Family Members (AEFMs) and U.S. Veterans will be given preference. Therefore, it is essential that the candidate address the required qualifications above in the application.

ADDITIONAL SELECTION CRITERIA

1. Management will consider nepotism/conflict of interest, budget and residency status in determining successful candidacy.
2. Current Locally Employed Staff (LES) are ineligible to apply for advertised positions within the first six months of employment in their current position.
3. Currently employed US Citizen EFM's who hold a FMA appointment are ineligible to apply for advertised positions within the first 90 days calendar days of their employment.
4. Currently employed NORs hired under a Personal Services Agreement (PSA) are ineligible to apply for advertised positions within the first 90 calendar days of their employment, unless currently hired into a position with a When Actually Employed (WAE) work schedule.

DEFINITIONS

1. U.S. Citizen Eligible Family Member (USEFM) – For purposes of receiving a preference in hiring for a qualified position, an EFM who meets the following criteria:

- U.S. Citizen; and,
- Spouse or unmarried child at least 18 years old; and,
- Listed on the travel orders of a direct-hire Foreign, Civil, or uniformed service member assigned to or stationed abroad with a USG agency that is under COM authority; and either:
  1. Resides at the sponsoring employee's or uniformed service member's post of assignment abroad (Colombia); or
  2. Resides at an Involuntary Separate Maintenance Allowance (ISMA) location authorized under 3 FAM 3232.2.

2. EFM: An individual related to a US Government employee in one of the following ways (Note: the USG employee must be officially assigned to Colombia):

- Spouse;
- Child, who is unmarried and under 21 years of age or, regardless of age, is incapable of self-support. The term shall include, in addition to natural offspring, stepchildren and adopted children and those under legal guardianship of the employee or the spouse when such children are expected to be under such legal guardianship until they reach 21 years of age and when dependent upon and normally residing with the guardian;
- Parent (including stepparents and legally adoptive parents) of the employee or of the spouse, when such parent is at least 51 percent dependent on the employee for support;
- Sister or brother (including stepsisters and stepbrothers, or adoptive sisters or brothers) of the employee, or of the spouse, when such sibling is at least 51 percent dependent on the employee for support, unmarried, and under 21 years of age, or regardless of age, incapable of self-support.

3. Member of Household (MOH) – An individual who accompanies a direct-hire Foreign, Civil, or uniformed service member permanently assigned or stationed in Colombia. An MOH is:

- Not an EFM; and,

- Not on the travel orders of the sponsoring employee; and,
- Has been officially declared by the sponsoring USG employee to the Chief of Mission (COM) as part of his/her household.

A MOH is under COM authority and may include a parent, unmarried partner, other relative or adult child who falls outside the Department's current legal and statutory definition of family member. A MOH does not have to be a U.S. Citizen.

4. Not Ordinarily Resident (NOR) – An individual who:

- Is not a citizen of the host country; and,
- Does not ordinarily reside (OR, see below) in the host country; and,
- Is not subject to host country employment and tax laws (i.e. individual is accredited before the Colombian Ministry of Foreign Affairs); and,
- Has a U.S. Social Security Number (SSN).

NOR employees are compensated under a GS or FS salary schedule, not under the LCP.

5. Ordinarily Resident (OR) – A Foreign National or US citizen who:

- Is locally resident; and,
- Has legal, permanent resident status within the host country; and,
- Is subject to host country employment and tax laws.

All OR employees, including US citizens, are compensated in accordance with the Local Compensation Plan (LCP).

CLOSING DATE FOR THIS POSITION: THURSDAY, JULY 9, 2009

The US Mission in Colombia provides equal opportunity and fair and equitable treatment in employment to all people without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, political affiliation, marital status, or sexual orientation. The Department of State also strives to achieve equal employment opportunity in all personnel operations through continuing diversity enhancement programs.

The EEO complaint procedure is not available to individuals who believe they have been denied equal opportunity based upon marital status or political affiliation.

Individuals with such complaints should avail themselves of the appropriate grievance procedures, remedies for prohibited personnel practices, and/or courts for relief.
